CALL TO CONFESSION Rev. John White

Once, daunted by the challenges of faithfulness, Jesus's disciples asked urgently, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For humans it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God."
Trusting in God who longs to mend our broken places, let us turn to God in prayer.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison) Rev. John White

*Gracious God,
Sometimes we expect that you will do what we want, that you will do whatever we ask.
Often we want places of honor and glory.
Often we want to be great.
Often we want to be first. And we shun those who are last.
But then we see the Christ, who was servant of all.
In his life, we see truth. We see your Kingdom.*

*Forgive our pride. Forgive our self-importance. Forgive us.
Teach us to be humble. And re-create us as those who are more like you.
Through Christ we pray, Amen.*

SILENT PRAYERS OF CONFESSION AND REPENTANCE

*ASSURANCE OF PARDON (Based on Mark 10:45)

Rev. John White

Family of God,
Our hope is in the Son of Man, who came not to be served but to serve,
And who gave his life as a ransom for our own.
In the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, the debt of our sin has been paid,
And we have been freed for new life. In Jesus Christ, we are all forgiven.

Elder Jeff Chambers

One: Who is Jesus Christ?

ALL: He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For by him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. Once we were alienated from God, but now God has reconciled us by Christ's physical body through death to present us holy in his sight. Thanks be to God!
